

Handlers

Handlers are special tasks in Ansible that only run when explicitly notified by other tasks.

Why do we use Handlers?

- To execute actions only when necessary, such as restarting a service after a configuration change.
- Helps maintain idempotency avoiding redundant operations.
- Ensures better performance and cleaner automation.

