Linux 🐧

- An open-source operating system like Windows or macOS.

- Free to use, customize, and share.

- Known for speed, security, and stability.

Why we use Linux?

- Free and no license cost.

- Very secure and less affected by viruses.

- Fast performance, even on old computers.

- Popular for programming, servers, and ethical hacking.

What is WSL?

- Windows Subsystem for Linux.

- Lets you run Linux inside Windows without installing it separately.

- Useful for coding and using Linux tools in Windows.

What is Ubuntu?

- A user-friendly version (distribution) of Linux.

- Free, easy to use, and beginner-friendly.

- Popular for learning Linux and everyday use.